Welcome

Welcome to Birmingham City University. You are now part of one of the largest Universities in the United Kingdom that attracts students from all backgrounds from across the region, the country and the rest of the world. With 25,000 students from 80 countries, Birmingham City University is a university with an international outlook.

The University also works in partnership with other higher education institutions and organisations not only in the United Kingdom but in countries throughout the world. These partnerships provide opportunities for students to study at a centre local to them on a programme that leads to an award of the University.

You too are studying for a Birmingham City University award through one of our partnerships. Throughout this Handbook we will refer to the place where you are studying i.e. Global School of Technology and Management, as either the 'partner organisation' or as GSTM.

This Handbook is one of several important documents that you will receive during your time as a Birmingham City University student. We urge you to read this Handbook and to keep it as a reference tool for the duration of your studies

About CEBE & SEBE

The Faculty of Computing, Engineering and the Built Environment (CEBE)

CEBE comprises of two schools that, together, are able to respond dynamically to the multiple modern technological challenges posed by fast-paced industries. Their shared vision is to create a powerful centre of technological excellence and innovation, to educate to the highest quality in technologies and engineering and equip students with the technical skills to contribute to the workplace as well as to the wider industry.

Our close links to industry allow students to become involved in the latest research or make a real contribution to business.

We also offer international links that allow us to explore further the emerging technologies, which are crucial for knowledge-sharing. They also offer opportunities for overseas exchange.

Students can find out what to expect from life at the university and how they can contribute by viewing our student partnership agreement.

Through a vast choice of accredited courses supported by more than 300 staff, plus vigorous research activities, CEBE has gained a reputation as the West Midlands' chief hub of knowledge, technology and skills-transfer into industry.

School of Engineering & the Built Environment (SEBE)

We are a recognised leader in education, training and business solutions, offering a wide range of courses that benefit from active engagement with regional, national and international industry - giving students the best possible introduction to modern engineering.

Our high-quality programmes combined with industry engagement have earned the School accreditation by world-leading professional bodies, such as the Institution of Engineering and Technology and the Institution of Mechanical Engineers (IMechE). Well-equipped laboratories enhance our students' educational experience, providing a bridge between theoretical learning and hands-on teaching to prepare them for a career in industry.

Our courses are tailored to meet the needs of employers through partnerships with professional bodies and industry. For example, each new programme is approved, or existing programmes re-approved, by a panel that includes a representative from a relevant industry or professional body.

Getting Started

Induction & Enrolment

Global School of Technology and Management ('GSTM') will arrange a Welcome Orientation Session which will be followed by an induction session. Attendance is compulsory for all new students.

Welcome Orientation Sessions will provide you with important information about your programme including the learning, teaching and assessment methods that will be used and what will be expected of you. You will receive an introduction to your institution, the facilities and the learning resources as well as meeting the members of the teaching and support staff and your fellow students

You will also be required to enroll as a student of GSTM as well as Birmingham City University ('the University'). In order to enrol, you will need to provide the following:

- Original certificate or official results notification of all qualifications that are listed on your application form;
- Original NRIC or passport;
- Completion of application form
- Payment for your fees as stipulated in Standard Student Contract or a sponsor letter confirming payment.

Once your application is approved by Birmingham City University (BCU), you will receive the following documents from GSTM:

- Offer letter,
- Advisory Note
- Standard Student Contract

As part of the enrolment process, GSTM will complete an enrolment form from BCU. The information is including details of your legal name, home and term time addresses and all previous qualifications. Other personal details will be required for statistical purposes.

Your enrolment forms will be sent to Birmingham City University so that we can then enroll you as a student of the University. Once we have set up an electronic record for you on our database, you are required to complete an online enrolment for confirmation of your registration as BCU student. Once you completed this process, you will be issued with a unique identification number, a Birmingham City University Network ID and password, and a personal Birmingham City University email account. This email address will be used by the University to communicate useful and official information. You will also need your password to make use of and to access the online learning facilities on the University's intranet (called iCity) and Moodle.

The amount of fees due will be recorded on your Standard Student Contract and you will be expected to pay or make arrangements to pay at enrolment. It is a condition of enrolment that you accept full responsibility for the payment of all programme fees and any other fees that you incur while registered as a student on the programme.

Campus Information

GSTM is located at 520 North Bridge Road, Wisma Alsagoff, #06-01 Singapore 188742. All programmes offered at GSTM is registered with Singapore Committee Private Education (Reg No: 201007405K). Please visit the Official CPE website at www.ssg.gov.sg/cpe/pei.html for details.

Your Programme

Programme Specification

Every course offered by the University has a programme specification. A programme specification is a concise description of the knowledge, understanding and skills you should have gained on successful completion of the programme as well as information about how you will be taught and how you will be assessed (for example by written examination or coursework assignment).

The programme specification for your course can be found at www.bcu.ac.uk/courses or www.gstm.edu.sg

Programme Timetable

A timetable will be issued to you during your orientation day. The timetable will include your assessment deadlines.

Student Portal Account

You will receive a Student Portal Account via email for the User ID and Password from GSTM.

You can log in to your Student Portal Account for programme timetable.

Learning and Teaching Methods

Key concepts will be introduced through lectures and will be explored further during seminars, workshops, lectures from visiting speakers, in-class and forum debates and through self-directed/independent study. Case studies are used to explore concepts applied to real-world scenarios. Experiential learning is encouraged via project-based assignments.

Analysis, synthesis and evaluation are developed as themes throughout the programme. Information and discussion forums will be available on Moodle (see Section 5: Resources) for participants to provide a support network to complement lectures, seminars and workshops.

One of the key aspects of higher education study is self-directed/independent learning and you will be expected to undertake a lot of work outside of your timetabled lectures and seminars. Don't rely on your lecture notes for all the information you'll need for an assessment. It is important that you do some independent research, for example, by reading through some of the additional textbooks suggested by your teaching team.

Language of Delivery and Assessment

All of your programme will be taught and assessed through the medium of English. English language support sessions will be made available to any student seeking supplementary support. More information about the language support sessions is available from your Programme Director or tutor.

Assessment Information

How you will be assessed?

A wide variety of assessment approaches are used throughout the programme. These include structured tasks, presentations, practical work, academic writing (articles, business reports and academic papers), individual or group projects and examinations. Your lecturer will issue you with assessment briefs that contain the specific details of individual assessments. The assessment briefs are changed annually and therefore cannot be published in the Handbook. More detailed information about how a particular module will be assessed can be found in the module specifications.

Assessment Regulations, Policies & Procedures

The University has a series of regulations, policies and procedures that govern your academic experience and all members of staff and all students are required to observe these during their time at the University. It is therefore important that you familiarise yourself with these regulations, policies and procedures. You can find the full set of University regulations, policies and procedures on the iCity at: <https://icity.bcu.ac.uk/Quality-Enhancement-and-Inclusion/Quality-Assurance-and-Enhancement/Academic-Regulations>

It is important that you familiarise yourself with the Academic Regulations: Assessment, Progression and Award. You can find the full version of Academic Regulations: Assessment, Progression and Award at iCity.

The way in which your work is assessed is covered by the University's Assessment Regulations. The regulations include information about:

- modules, levels of modules and the credits which attach to them;
- requirements for passing modules;
- requirements for progression to the next level of your course;
- how to achieve an award with Commendation or Distinction and how degree classifications are calculated;
- what happens if you fail a module.

Key features

1. Number of assessment opportunities

You will have two assessment opportunities for each module. If, at the first assessment attempt, you fail a module or an item of assessment in a module you will have one opportunity to be re-assessed. And If you fail the re-assessment attempt in a core module, you will be withdrawn from the course.

If you fail to submit work for re-assessment in a core module, you will fail the module and be withdrawn from the course. Please note that if there is something outside your control that is affecting your ability to complete an assessment you can ask the University for an extension or to take the assessment at a later date, by making a claim under the University's Extenuating Circumstances procedure. Click here for further information at <https://icity.bcu.ac.uk/Student-Affairs/Appeals-and-Resolutions/Extenuating-Circumstances-Procedure>

If you fail an optional module, you can choose to substitute an alternative optional module if one is available after failure at the first attempt or failure at the re-assessment attempt. You will have two assessment attempts at the new optional module. However, if you fail the re-assessment attempt in the new module, you will be deemed to have failed and no further optional modules can be taken in its place.

2. The pass mark for a module

The pass mark for a module with one item of assessment is 40% for undergraduate course and 50% for postgraduate course. In modules where there is more than one item of assessment, a pass mark will be awarded where the overall weighted average of the marks achieved for the items of assessment is 40% or more for undergraduate and 50% or more for postgraduate.

3. Non-discretionary compensated credit

Compensation is automatically applied at each stage of study at the level of the module for a marginal fail of up to 40 credits provided the stage mean has been achieved, on the basis that a strong performance by a student in one part of the curriculum may be used as the basis for the award of credit in respect of a marginal fail elsewhere. Compensation can be applied to both core and optional modules where the following criteria are met.

Where a student has not achieved the credit requirement for progression or award but has met the following criteria, then up to 40 credits will automatically be granted by compensation provided that the remaining credits in the stage meet the pass threshold:

- a stage mean of 40% for an undergraduate course, with the exception of integrated Master's courses where the stage mean requirement in the final stage is 50%, or a stage mean of 50% for a postgraduate course (excluding the research project/dissertation);
- a marginal fail on the module/s (35-39% for undergraduate modules or 45-49% for a level 7 module). Compensation cannot be applied to awards consisting of fewer than 120 credits.

The regulations for your course are the Assessment Regulations Third Version \(2020\). You'll receive information about the University's regulations from your programme team, and if your programme is governed by Standard University Regulations, you can access them along with other useful policies and procedures, on the Academic Regulations and Policies page on iCity.

You may be asked for a 'username' and 'password', which is just your University network ID and password. Under 'username', you'll need to type: STUDENTS\ before adding in your University network ID. Once you've added in your details, a SharePoint page will open up: Click on the 'Academic Regulations and Policies' folder to access our standard regulations.

Assessment Information

Maximum Registration Periods

For Top-up Degrees, the maximum registration period is three years.

For Master of Science, the maximum registration period is five years.

Extensions of registration periods require the approval of the Director of Academic Services in consultation with academic staff. When previous study is no longer current, students may be required to take current versions of the nearest equivalent modules.

Assignment Submission

You will be submitting several pieces of coursework work over the academic year and it is important that you keep the following in mind:

- Prepare your work so that your assignment is ready in advance of the submission date (see My Assignment Planner in Section 5: Resources for help with planning your assignment);
- Each assignment must be submitted with a standard cover sheet showing your name, full student number and programme of study, module title and the name of your tutor. You will be given a receipt on submission of your coursework;
- Collect several cover sheets from the office at the start of the term so you can complete one before you hand in your work;
- Ensure that your assignment is ready for submission when it is handed in i.e. the work is secured in the file and the cover sheet has been completed;
- All coursework is due by 5pm on the day of submission; any work submitted after this deadline will be regarded as a late submission and will be subject to the appropriate penalty (see below Late Submission);
- Only submit complete assignments. You cannot submit missing sections after the submission date. If you wish to add to an assignment that has been handed in and the submission date has not yet passed, you must provide a copy of your receipt. Your work will be returned, and you must then resubmit it.

Extenuating Circumstances/Mitigating Circumstances and Extension to Deadline

If you can't submit an assignment or attend an exam for valid reasons beyond your control (for example, if you are ill) you can apply under the University's procedures for the consideration of exceptional circumstances for either:

- A deferral (which means that you will take the assessment at the next available opportunity); OR
- A coursework extension of 10 working days to the coursework deadline

You must make sure you submit your request, with evidence (i.e. a doctor's note if you are ill), at least 7 working days before the exam/assessment deadline. The full procedures are available on iCity at <https://icity.bcu.ac.uk/Student-Affairs/Appeals-and-Resolutions/Extenuating-Circumstances-Procedure>

Late Submission

Students are responsible for submitting coursework on time and in the way specified in Module Guides. Marks for assessments submitted:

1. Up to 1 hour late = no penalty
2. 1 – 24 hours late = reduced by 5%
3. 24 hours – 5 working days = reduced by 10%
4. More than 5 working days = not marked – 0% recorded

If you do not have exceptional circumstances but submit your first attempt of an assessment after the published deadline, the maximum mark you can be awarded will be the pass mark for the module, provided you submit your work no more than 5 working days after the published deadline.

Work submitted more than 5 working days after the published deadline will be given a mark of zero and you will be deemed to have failed an attempt at the assessment. Where you submit a reassessment attempt after the published deadline you will be deemed to have failed the re-assessment and the coursework will be returned to you unmarked.

If you have longer term problems which you think are likely to last more than three weeks, you should ask your personal tutor whether you should apply to withdraw temporarily from the course – this is called 'taking an interruption of studies'. Further information is available in Frequently Asked Questions Section.

Re-Assessment

If you have not passed a module at the first attempt, you may be eligible for re-assessment. If you do re-sit a module without extenuating circumstances, your mark will be capped at the pass mark i.e. the maximum mark that you can achieve will be the pass mark (this is usually 40% for Undergraduate and 50% for Postgraduate).

Students who fail modules are permitted a second attempt at each failed assessment, provided this can be completed within their maximum registration period.

Reassessments submitted after the deadline will be given a mark of zero. Students may not be reassessed on modules they have passed.

Reassessments must be attempted on the next occasion the assessment takes place unless an interruption of study has been granted. Marks for modules that include reassessments are capped at 40%. When reassessment results in a lower mark, the original mark is used.

Students who do not attend a reassessment event or miss a coursework deadline will fail the assessment unless a deferral or extension is granted.

If reassessment using the same methods as the initial assessment is not practicable, the Examination Board will make special arrangements for re-assessment.

Academic Misconduct

Academic Misconduct is often referred to as 'cheating' or 'plagiarism' and can take a variety of forms and although it may be intentional or unintentional, the University takes allegations of academic misconduct very seriously. Cheating is considered a disciplinary offence if a student attempts to gain or helps someone else to gain an unfair advantage over other students. Students who are suspected of cheating will have to attend a formal hearing to explain their case, and if found guilty of cheating the penalties can be severe, including the removal of academic credit or even your permanent expulsion from the University.

Some examples of academic misconduct are included below, but the list is not exhaustive and cheating in assessed work may take other forms:

Cheating in examinations:

- Attempting to access confidential information before an examination, including trying to get sight of the examination paper before it is published;
- Taking or attempting to take unauthorised material, including blank paper, electronic devices and mobile phones, into an examination room;
- Communicating or attempting to communicate in any way with another candidate or any other person (other than the invigilator) during an examination;
- Copying, or trying to copy, the work of another student;
- Allowing or assisting another student to copy;
- Impersonation – taking an assessment on behalf of, or pretending to be, another student, or allowing another person to take an assessment on behalf of a student;
- Attempting to remove script books, including blank script books, from an examination room.

Cheating in relation to other forms of assessed work – including:

Plagiarism: This is the submission of an item of assessment, which all or in part, contains work produced by another person (s) in such a way that it could be assumed to be the student's own work. Plagiarism also includes a lack of 'in-text' referencing. Information on avoiding plagiarism can be found on the Centre for Academic Success web pages Centre.

Collusion: This is where there has been improper collaboration (or working together) in the production of a piece of work, which is then submitted as entirely the work of an individual. It is important to note that except where written instructions state that work for assessment may be produced jointly and submitted as the work of more than one student, (often referred to as 'group work'), students must not collaborate with other students to produce a piece of work jointly. Furthermore, students should not copy or share another student's work, lend their work to another student or allow another student to copy their work.

Assessment Information

Falsification of data or artefacts: This is where students invent data or change their material in order to support an argument. Examples of such behaviour include inventing false responses to questionnaires and interviews and amending test results/figures.

Duplication: This is the submission of a piece of work in whole or in part that has already been submitted for assessment elsewhere, including concurrent submissions. To find out how you can avoid allegations of cheating, it is strongly suggested that you visit our assessment guide, available at: <https://icity.bcu.ac.uk/Academic-Registry/Information-forStudents/Assessment/Avoiding->

Allegations-of-Cheating

To help you understand how to reference correctly, please seek advice from your tutors or familiarise yourself with information on avoiding plagiarism provided by the University at: <http://library.bcu.ac.uk/learner/writingguides/1.12.htm>

Here are a few simple principles to follow to avoid allegations of cheating:

In exams:

- Don't attempt to see the paper before it is published;
- Don't ask another student for help during the exam or copy another student's work;
- Don't let another student copy your work;
- Don't take unauthorised materials into the exam room;
- Make sure you know what equipment/materials you can use in the exam (i.e. calculator) and make sure the permitted materials are clear of your additional notes and other recorded information.

In coursework:

- Don't pass off someone else's work as your own. This is plagiarism and is viewed very seriously by the University;
- Acknowledge all sources that you have used in your assignment or project. For advice on referencing contact the Centre for Academic Success;
- Use quotation marks if you are using the exact words of another person;
- Don't submit a piece of work that has already been submitted in whole or in part for an assessment elsewhere. This is called duplication and, like plagiarism, is viewed very seriously by the University;
- Check with your course team whether you can work with others on your coursework, and if so, be sure about what you should be doing on your own;
- Don't allow others to copy your work, or lend your work to other students;
- Don't make up data to prove your point.

Assessment Results and Examination Boards

At the end of your academic year and when you have completed all of your assessments, an Examination Board meeting will be held. The Board is made up of staff from your institution, the University as well as the External Examiner (see below).

The purpose of the meeting is to endorse the marks awarded to assessment. It is only after the Examination Board has confirmed your marks that you will receive confirmation of your results.

Assessment Information

Marking, Feedback and the External Examiner

When you hand in your work or sit an exam, your work will be marked as quickly as possible by the teaching team. Their marking will then be moderated within the Department or Faculty, to ensure that marks have been awarded fairly. Marking is carried out anonymously, wherever possible, so don't worry, personal feelings are never taken into account when your work is being graded. To make sure that you are assessed fairly in relation to other students on the same course and to ensure the quality and standards of our courses are comparable to similar courses in other Universities, the University employs an External Examiner. An External Examiner is a qualified subject specialist who works in a UK university other than Birmingham City University. External examiners won't be marking your work, but they will see a sample of assessed work to check the appropriateness of the standards and the marks awarded.

The External Examiner will visit your centre at least once a year and you will have the opportunity to talk to them about your experience – good and bad! - on the programme. Following the visit, the External Examiner will write a report that tells the University about the good practices at your centre and of any concerns they might have. External Examiner reports are made available to students and you can request a copy from your Programme Director. You'll get feedback on your assessments, so make sure you go and collect your work once it's been marked. Feedback is really useful as it includes the markers' constructive comments on your assessment, including aspects of your work that could be improved, and it can also provide guidance and advice for future assessments. Please note that when you collect your work, you will receive an indication of how well you have done in your assessment and you may receive a mark for the work. However, remember that the mark is only indicative and is subject to change. You will receive the final mark after the meeting of the Examination Board.

Grading criteria

Statements of grading criteria for each of the assessment criteria describe performance associated with the assessment criteria. The grading criteria are the basis upon which marks are accorded. Grading criteria for each module assessment are provided in the relevant assignment briefs.

Error in the Conduct of an Assessment or an Examination Board

If you consider that there has been an error or irregularity in an assessment, or at an examination board, you may submit a claim under the "Procedure for Considering Claims of Error in the Conduct of Assessment Processes". To submit a claim you should complete a form called "Academic Appeal Form" which is available on iCity at <https://icity.bcu.ac.uk/Student-Affairs/Appeals-and-Resolutions/Extenuating-Circumstances-Procedure>

Procedure

If you wish to make a claim, you must submit your academic appeal within 20 working days of the decision that you are questioning being published or received. If, for good reason, you cannot submit a claim within this timescale you should speak to your Tutor or Programme Director. If you are still not happy with our response to your academic appeal, you can ask for a review. You shall complete the "Academic Review Form" which is available on iCity at <https://icity.bcu.ac.uk/Student-Affairs/Appeals-and-Resolutions/Extenuating-Circumstances-Procedure>

This stage should be completed within 20 working days of us receiving the request for a review and we will give you our decision in writing.

Assessment Information

Interruption of Studies

Students may apply for permission to interrupt their studies for between 20 working days and one academic year. This requires the approval of the Director of Academic Services. See the Student Withdrawal and Interruption of Studies Policy for more details. Students who interrupt withdraw from all current modules and may not attend classes or submit work for assessment. Existing assessment marks (including failures) are carried forward when the modules are resumed. Students who fail to resume their studies at the time agreed with the University will have their registration terminated.

Programme Transfers

Students may apply to transfer between programmes. This requires the approval of the Programme Directors of both the old and new programmes, who will take account of the availability of places, admissions criteria, ability to transfer credit, maximum registration periods and timing.

Withdrawal and Termination

Students have the right to withdraw at any time. Those considering this should seek advice as soon as possible from the appropriate academic staff and student support services. See the Student Withdrawal and Interruption of Studies policy for more details. The University may terminate a student's registration due to assessment failure, failure to engage, exclusion, failure to complete re-enrolment, breach of visa conditions or breach of regulations.

After withdrawal or termination:

- students are not permitted to attend teaching sessions or take assessments;
- Library and network access are withdrawn;
- there may be a tuition fee liability.

Assessments submitted before termination or withdrawal will be considered by Examination Boards in the normal way and may contribute to the granting of an Exit Award.

Borderline for Degree Classification

Rounding of marks may result in a grand mean mark coming close to but below a degree classification boundary. Students falling within a borderline area of one percent below each classification boundary as follows will be eligible for reclassification:

- 69-70 Boundary for 2:1/1st and for postgraduate merit/distinction
- 59-60 Boundary for 2:2/2:1 and for postgraduate pass/merit
- 49-50 Boundary for 3rd/2:2 and for postgraduate borderline fail
- 39-40 Borderline fail for undergraduate

Classification of Honours Degrees

Classification of Mark	Honours Classification
First Class	70% or above
Second Class Honours Division I	60 – 69 %
Second Class Honours Division II	50 – 59%
Third Class	40 – 49%

Classification of Postgraduate Programmes

For the master programmes, modules are assessed independently of each other. A mark, or in some cases a pass/fail, is given for each module and credit is awarded to students who pass. The pass mark for assessments where marks are awarded is 50%.

The pass mark for modules is a weighted average of 50% across all assessments in the module. To qualify for awards, students need the following credits:

Award	Minimum Credit Needed
Postgraduate Certificate	60 credits of which at least 40 must be at level 7
Postgraduate Diploma	120 credits of which at least 100 must be at level 7
Master's Degree	180 credits of which at least 160 must be at level 7

Assessment Information

In term of commendation and distinction:

- The award of Postgraduate Certificate is not available with Commendation or Distinction.
- The award of Postgraduate Diploma with Commendation will be made to students who satisfy the requirements for the award and achieve an overall average mark of 60 – 69% in the 120 credits required for the award.
- The award of Postgraduate Diploma with Distinction will be made to students who satisfy the requirements for the award and achieve an overall average mark of 70% or above in the 120 credits required for award.
- The award of Master's Degree with Commendation will be made to students who satisfy the requirements for the award and achieve an overall average mark of 60 - 69% in the 180 credits required for award.
- The award of Master's Degree with Distinction will be made to students who satisfy the requirements for the award and achieve an overall average mark of 70% or above in the 180 credits required for award.
- Where a student has been admitted with academic credit, eligibility for an award with Commendation or Distinction will be based solely upon the marks achieved in the modules the student was required to complete on the programme in order to qualify for the award.
- Where students have more than the required number of credits, their best marks will be used up to the number of credits required for the award.

The classification award for Postgraduate:

Award	Less Than	Greater Than
Distinction	Not applicable	70% threshold plus 50% of credit at 70 or above
Merit	70% plus 50% of credit at 70 or above	60% threshold plus 50% of credit at 60 or above
Pass	60% plus 50% of credit at 60 or above	50%

Certificates and Transcripts

Certificates and Transcripts are issued to all students who pass all modules and receive awards.

Aegrotat Awards

This policy applies when a student changes the course or period of study (from full time to part time or vice versa) but remains as a student of BCU. Circumstances in which a transfer/ withdrawal application will be granted if the student applies for transfer to another course.

Transfer to another course OR Conversion from Full-Time to Part-Time Study (or vice versa) for existing students

A student changes from one course to another course within the School will be treated as a withdrawal from an existing course (refer to withdrawal terms and conditions). If a student's course of study is offered on both a full-time and part-time basis, he or she may apply to change his/her mode of study from full-time to part-time (or vice versa) during his/her studies. The conversion of status is permitted once only during the entire period of study.

For students under 18 years of age, parent's/ legal guardian's written consent is required before the course transfer/conversion from full-time to part-time Study (or vice versa) application will be processed. For the student under Company's sponsorship, the company representative must indicate approval for course transfer/status conversion in the designated section of the "Conversion from Full-Time to Part-Time Study (or vice versa) Form" or "Transfer of Course Form". The student is required to submit a copy of the approval letter from their Company together with the form.

Course Transfer

For course transfer, an administrative fee stipulated in the Standard PEI Student Contract Schedule C Miscellaneous Fees is applicable for all transfer requests. The administrative fee is non-refundable and non-transferable.

The student must meet the entry requirements of the new course before they are applying for. Approval for transfer will be granted on a case-by-case basis, subject to the student meeting the admissions requirements of the new course and approval from the BCU and GSTM. It is important to note that all students are responsible for protecting the academic standards and reputation of the GSTM. This responsibility can extend beyond each Student's conduct and include reporting incidents of suspected academic dishonesty through the appropriate channels. Students with reasonable grounds to suspect academic dishonesty should raise their concerns directly to the relevant Academic Department.

B. Respect for People

The GSTM encourages students to display consideration, kindness and responsibility in their dealings with others. Students should not engage in disorderly or offensive behaviour such as making threats against others, intimidating others, harassing others, drunkenness, lewdness, or participating in any unlawful assembly.

Students are expected to treat others with respect, courtesy and consideration to create a positive learning and social environment at the GSTM. Treating others with dignity and respect concerning their gender, race, values, religion, and disabilities helps create meaningful and uplifting experiences for all students, which in turn helps create lifelong bonds and support networks that enrich their lives. Students must feel safe and secure at all times while at the GSTM.

Accordingly, students should not engage in conduct which violates another person's dignity or create an environment which is hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive to another person. Online Behaviour

Students are expected to adhere to the same standards of behaviour online as they would in face-to-face interactions with other persons. They should also note that irresponsible usage of digital and social media, even in a personal capacity, may have a significant detrimental effect on the interest or welfare of other members of the GSTM community. When using digital and social media, students should be mindful that online materials can be copied freely and continue to exist even if the original item is removed. They should therefore strive to be transparent and respectful, exercise good judgment before making any postings, and engage the community responsibly.

D. Responsibility towards Maintaining the School premises as a Place Conducive for Learning

GSTM authorities ensure that the school premises are properly managed so that students benefit from learning in a safe and pleasant environment and good facilities for all students of the GSTM community. Any act of mutilation, vandalism or theft of properties belonging to members of the community or the GSTM will not be condoned.

This Code of Conduct for Online Learning applies to students when using any school platform or technology both at school and outside of school. All academic staff and students are expected to adhere to this Code to be admitted to online learning. It also sets out the procedure which should be followed where the Code of Conduct for Online Learning is breached.

Breach of the Code of Conduct for Online Learning may lead to disciplinary action being taken against a student, and repeated breaches or a single serious breach may result in a student being suspended or expelled from the GSTM.

Student Complaint/ Grievance Procedure

Appeal Policy

Academic Appeal Policy

Examination Board of University are responsible for maintaining standards that promote academic integrity and student success.

It is expected that University will make academic judgments that are consistent and that students' academic records will reflect their demonstrated abilities and accomplishments.

Students are entitled to know their rights under the Academic Appeals policy.

Students may initiate Academic Appeals in relation to the following types of academic decisions:

- A final grade in a module
- An academic dishonesty charge (e.g., plagiarism, cheating)

Students with academic issues involving allegations of discrimination or harassment should consult the Student Counsellor.

Grounds for Academic Appeal

A student has the right to appeal against that decision of the Examination Board of University on the following grounds:

- 1) Student's performance in the assessment was adversely affected by illness or other factors which she/he was unable, or for valid reasons unwilling, to divulge before the Examination Board and University reached its decision. The student's request must be supported by medical certificates or other documentary evidence acceptable to the Appeal Panel indicating clearly why such evidence was not previously presented to the Examination Board and University.
- 2) That there has been a material administrative error or that the assessment was not conducted in accordance with the Academic Regulations governing the course, or that some materials irregularity has occurred.

Academic Appeal Procedures

At the Academic Query and Early Resolution stage, a straightforward query is dealt with quickly and locally, for example, by the relevant module coordinator (GSTM), module leader (BCU), GSTM's Link Tutor and BCU's Link Tutor.

This stage helps students understand why they were given a particular assessment mark or grade and/or why an extenuating circumstances request was unsuccessful.

This stage should be completed within 10 working days of the query being raised after the release of the results. If students are not satisfied with the response to the query and if there are relevant grounds for taking the matter further, it can move to the formal academic appeal stage.

Students need to complete the Academic Appeals Form within 20 working days after the release of the results. At the Formal Academic Appeal Stage, University will render a decision on the appeal within 20 working days. If students are unhappy with the academic appeal outcome, they can submit the "Academic Review Form" to University Partner.

The academic appeal at the Review Stage is to be completed within 20 working days of receiving the request for a review.

There are limited grounds for asking for a review, which is as follows:

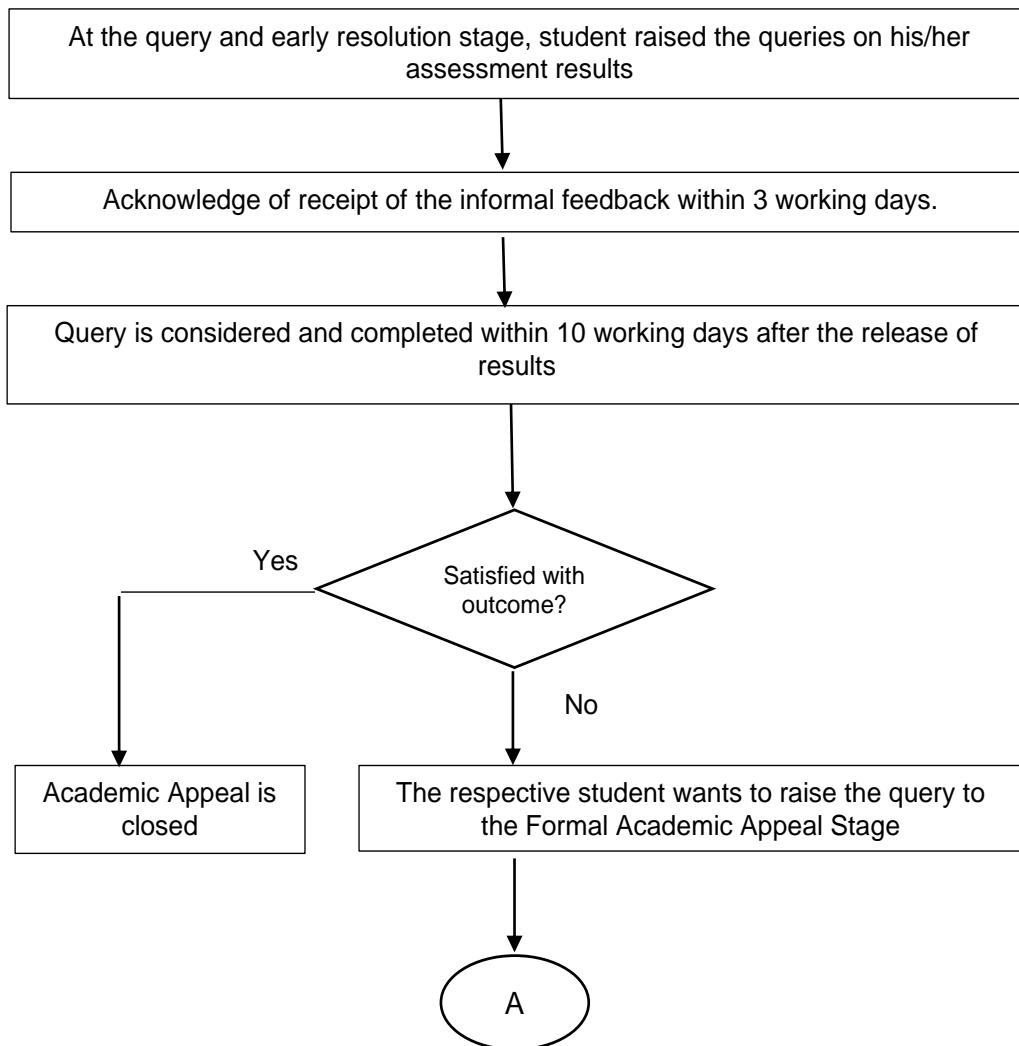

- There is new evidence that students were unable, for valid reasons, to provide earlier in the process, which would have had a significant effect on the outcome of the formal academic appeal stage.
- The correct procedure was not followed during the formal academic appeal stage, and this has had a significant effect on the outcome.
- The outcome was unreasonable given all the circumstances and the evidence considered

The University will inform the students and GSTM's Link Tutor to decide on the academic appeal at the Review Stage academic review. If the students are not satisfied with the outcome, they may be able to apply to the Office of Independence Adjudicator (OIA) for a review of their academic appeals. Academic Appeal Procedures and notification of decisions are outlined in next page.

What if I want to change or leave my course?

If you think you want to leave your course, it's a good idea to talk it through with your Personal Tutor or Programme Director before making any final decisions. They can discuss your options with you. It is important that if you intend to withdraw from your course after enrolment you inform your Programme Director. You should state in writing that you wish to withdraw, and you should indicate your last date of attendance.

Students who do not respond to communications from the University or from GSTM, or for whom there is evidence of no participation during a continuous period of one month, are sent a letter requesting them to attend a meeting with the programme manager. If there is no response, or a response that indicates that the student is not participating on the enrolled programme, the student will be withdrawn, and a letter sent to him/her to confirm this action.

What if I want to take some time out from the course?

Taking time out is called 'an interruption of study', which is an approved leave of absence from all study and may be taken for a number of reasons e.g. health, financial, academic or personal. If you're thinking about interrupting, you should talk to Personal Tutor or Programme Director first before completing the necessary paperwork. It is your responsibility to inform the University if you intend to interrupt your study.

How do I make a complaint?

If you're unhappy about any aspects of your experience as a Birmingham City University student, we want to know about it so talk to your Personal Tutor or Programme Director. In many cases, they will be the best person to help you but if they are unable to resolve matters for you, you may need to refer to the University's formal complaints procedure (available on the University website).

What should I do if I change my name during my time at University?

If you change your name during your studies and would like your new name to be used on your University records and award certificates, you must make a formal request to your Programme Director. You must make the request before you finish your course. No changes can be made to your student record after the final examination board for your course has met. You must provide evidence of your change of name.

Acceptable forms of evidence are:

- Passport
- Marriage certificate
- Birth certificate (original birth certificate issued within 12 months of birth)
- Divorce decree absolute.

Please note that your student number will remain the same throughout your course, even if you change your name.
