- Learning objectives and outcomes are linked to modes of assessment.
- Student feedback and module review form will be collected from student and lecturer

GSTM and/or University Partner also communicates to students the weighting of the assessments and its examination policies of the course/module. During the first lesson of class, students shall be provided with a description of the means of evaluation to be used in the module which shall include:

- the learning objective and learning outcomes of the module and lessons
- the number, nature and forms of Assessment to be used in the module
- the assessment tasks including required word counts (if appropriate), weighting, due dates and marking criteria will be specified and made available to students in the module outline
- the GSTM and/or University Partner's academic integrity policy

It is the responsibility of Students to exercise due diligence in familiarizing themselves with:

- requirements of the Assessments to which they will be subjected in their modules;
- the due date of Assessments;
- the date, time and location of their examinations;
- academic integrity;
- the conduct of examinations

The Assessment Plan for a Course

The assessment plan for a course should enable the academic staff to engage in both formative and summative assessment.

There are five methods of assessment commonly used at the GSTM and University Partner as follow:

- Examinations: selected and /or constructed response, short and long case studies.
- Class discussion and activity (written/oral)
- Assignments (individual/ group): written, planning, problem-solving, reports, research-based, practice based;
- Assessment based on presentation (group/ Individual); and
- Assessment based on research (e.g. Honours Research Project)

Students must be provided with a clear understanding of academic expectations for each assessment task they are required to complete. Students must be given timely, constructive feedback on their work to support their progress toward achieving the learning outcomes for their module and course. The total assessment workload required of students must be proportionate with the unit's weighting.

Assessment Schedule:

The Academic Department shall publish an annual calendar of all assessments for the programme in advance of teaching in Student Portal.

Assessment Process:

All assessment papers shall be vetted and approved by Head of Academic and Examination Board and/or University Partner (if applicable). GSTM shall ensure the academic integrity of the examination – printing of examination papers, invigilation of examination, marking of examination papers, secure storage and reproduction of confidential test material.

Submission of Coursework Report

Adopt the use of Turn-it-in for all coursework report include a student declaration of originality submissions for all course. All student receives consistent treatment for late submission of coursework report as determined in Student Handbook on late submission coursework regulations. All submitted work and answer scripts (e.g. Examination) is considered for moderation, including work submitted late or with a permitted extension.

Plagiarism

All written coursework shall be checked for originality using Turn-it-in where this is appropriate to the learning outcomes and assessment design. Failure by students to do so will be regarded as a non-submission.

Student Assessment

Assessment result are:

Module Lecturer is First Marker to mark all the assessment reports. GSTM appoints a Second Marker to mark all assessment reports before submit it to Examination Board. University Partner will appoint Second Marker, Third Marker (where applicable) and External Examiner for marking all the assessment reports for courses of the university partner.

Examination Board and/or University Partner (if applicable) vets and approves all assessment papers, results award; and the process of result moderation of student's work in ensuring that assessments have the consistency of scores across different academic staff or over time; assessments are reliable and fair to all students before they are released to students.

Examination Board shall conduct a post-assessment analysis to determine the students' progress related to the module learning outcomes. The Post-Assessment analysis for each module shall be considered for course review process.

Final results are released within three months upon completion of the final examination and/or assignment of the course. Students able to see their results through Student Portal Account (for student enrolled to GSTM's course) and Moodle (applicable to student enrolled to University Partner's course).

GSTM shall release appeal results within four weeks of its course. And University Partner shall release appeal results within 20 Working days.

Internal Moderation

The school needs to be assured that robust, effective and consistent internal moderation processes are taking place in all subjects' areas across all programmes. The internal moderation systems are based on a "minimum threshold" definition of internal moderation, standard roles and standard processes as outlines below.

"To moderate" is to regulate or adjust within norms or against predetermined criteria. In practice, internal moderation with respect to assessment involves a process to ensure that the marking has taken place in a way which ensures maintenance of standards, consistency of marking and fairness to students. It does not necessarily entail a second allocation of marks (second marking), but where second marking is practiced, for example with reference to Independent Studies, this may be viewed as a test of marking as outlined in the procedures below.

All assessed work submitted for credit in programmes leading to GSTM awards shall be subject to a process of internal moderation. This policy extends to all modes of assessment and all delivery locations. Where assessed work is not in written form, every effort should be made to apply some appropriate form of moderation. Internal moderation must be carried out by Academic staff in accordance with the procedures below. Internal moderation must be carried out by a designated academic staff by GSTM.

All results shall be approved by the Examination Board before the Academic Department is allowed to release the results.

Examination Results

Release of Results

Examination results will be released 2 months later after examination. The results will be published at Student Notice Board. Students who have already passed a module cannot be re-assessed in or re-take that module in order to improve their module results.

When the total mark for module is less than 45%, but not normally less than 43 %, and providing that no component contributing to the module assessment mark is less than 43 % the GSTM Academic & Exam board may exceptionally allow, provided it is justified by an appraisal of the student's overall performance on the course to date, including satisfactory performance in other units assessed in the same level as the unit considered for compensation. In this case the mark recorded for the unit in question will be 45%.

Student Assessment

Code of Conduct for Students

Examinations can be a stressful and may lead to some students behaving out of character. While allowances should be made, especially where ill health is concerned, unacceptable behaviour cannot be condoned and must always be reported. In this context, 'behaviour' relates to actions, language, gestures and the written word.

Unacceptable behaviour (actions, language, gestures etc.) includes, but is not limited to:

- Aggression
- Threats
- Discrimination; gender, sexual orientation, race, age, religion, belief, disability etc.
- Indecent or offensive gestures and language
- Unsubstantiated allegations
- Disruptive conduct that distracts other students
- Unreasonable demands, undue persistence, bullying or harassment.
- In extreme cases of abuse or continual disruption to other students, Invigilators must contact Student Support/Services or Academic Coordinator to remove the offending student. All incidents must be recorded in a report.

The key concern is to protect students and minimise disruption. If it is less disruptive to allow a student to carry on with their exam, do so. Invigilators must note the students' details and report the unacceptable behaviour

Students seeking to gain an unfair advantage including he/she attempting to gain an unfair advantage in an exam is 'improper behaviour'.

Improper behaviour, includes, but is not limited to:

- Disregarding instructions from, or arguing with, an Invigilator
- Possession of unauthorised material (i.e. phone, notes etc.)
- Communicating with another student (giving or receiving information)
- Copying from another student
- Writing before or after the prescribed exam time
- Attempting to take away exam papers that should not be removed from an exam
- Leaving or entering the exam room without permission

If a student is later interviewed under this code of conduct for students, they will receive a copy of the Student Disciplinary Concern form

Academic Integrity

Cheating in any form is treated seriously and it is the policy of the school that all cases of suspected cheating in the assessments or examinations are brought to immediate attention of the Examination Board of GSTM or The Board of Examiners of the University Partner (if applicable). The Board has the authority to deem the student to have failed part or all of the assessments, to determine whether the student is allowed to be reassessed and decide on other appropriate disciplinary actions.

Plagiarism is defined as "to take and use another person's thoughts, writings or inventions as one's own", and in particular copying without acknowledgement.

Copying of other students' works is also a form of plagiarism. Plagiarism has occurred when the student:

- a) does not acknowledge the work of another person or persons, or
- b) Has not identified the source or cited quotations in any work presented for assessment, or
- c) Has used images, music, video, patents or other creative materials without acknowledgement of their provenance, or
- d) Has copied another student's work without their knowledge, or
- e) Has submitted the same piece of their own work for assessment and award of credit in two (or more) modules.

If a student's work is found to contain verbatim (or near verbatim) quotation from the work of others without acknowledgement, then plagiarism has been committed.

In determining the seriousness of an act of plagiarism, the following factors are usually taken into account:

- the experience of the student;
- cultural considerations;
- the nature and extent of the plagiarism; and
- where evidence is available, the intention of the student to plagiarise.

Fabrication is falsifying or inventing any information, data, or citation; presenting data that were not gathered in accordance with standard guidelines defining the appropriate methods for collecting or generating data and failing to include an accurate account of the method by which the data were gathered or collected.

Obtaining an unfair advantage:

- a) stealing, reproducing, circulating, or otherwise gaining access to examination materials prior to the time authorised by the lecturer;
- b) stealing, destroying, defacing, or concealing library materials with the purpose of depriving others of their use;
- c) unauthorised collaborating on an academic assignment;
- d) retaining, possessing, using, or circulating previously given examination materials, where those materials clearly indicate that they are to be returned to the lecturer at the conclusion of the examination;
- e) intentionally obstructing or interfering with another student's academic work; or
- f) recycling one's own work done in previous classes without obtaining permission from one's current lecturer; or
- g) otherwise undertaking activity with the purpose of creating or obtaining an unfair academic advantage over other students' academic work.

Aiding and abetting academic dishonesty:

- a) providing material, information, or other assistance to another person with knowledge that such aid could be used in any of the violations stated above; or
- b) providing false information in connection with any inquiry regarding academic integrity.

Falsification of records and official documents: altering documents affecting academic records; forging signatures of authorisation or falsifying information on an official academic document, grade report, letter of permission or any other official School document.

Student Assessment

Policy

1. The foundation of good academic work is honesty. Maintaining academic integrity upholds the standards of the GSTM and University Partner.
2. The responsibility for maintaining integrity in all the activities of the academic lies with the students as well as the Academic Staff and the University Partner. Everyone must work together to ensure that the values of truth, trust and justice are upheld.
3. Academic dishonesty affects the GSTM and University Partner's reputation and devalues the academic programmes offered.

The following penalties may be imposed including expulsion; suspension; zero mark/fail grade; marking down; re-doing/re-submitting of assignments or reports; and verbal or written warning.

Levels of Seriousness of Plagiarism

- Low level plagiarism is inadequate or incorrect citing, referencing or paraphrasing, arising mainly from a student's limited knowledge about plagiarism, or how to conform to academic conventions, poor writing skills, or from carelessness or neglect rather than intention to cheat. This would most often apply to students in their first study period but can occur with more experienced students as well.
- Medium level plagiarism includes failure to reference or cite adequately arising from negligence or apparent intent to deceive (where adequate knowledge of conventions would have been expected). It may also include copying other students' assignment work, collusion or recycling of previous assignments. This would likely apply to students after the first semester of their course or who have been provided with significant instruction on how to avoid plagiarism.
- High level plagiarism includes copied work, work completed by someone else or purchased work presented with a clear intention to deceive an assessor. This can occur when a significant proportion of the work is copied either from another student or from other sources, or when students have submitted work completed for them by someone else which may or may not be purchased. This would likely apply to students who are experienced or who are expected to understand the principles of academic integrity but may also involve less experienced students who knowingly present copied work or work they have not themselves completed.

Using Turnitin for Plagiarism Validation Process

This process is application to Specialist and Advanced Diploma programmes. Student is required to submit their assignment report through Turnitin for Plagiarism Validation Process. The detail is as following:

Qualification Level	Plagiarism Percentage	Plagiarism Range	%	Graded Mark (GM) Reduction	Final Mark
Level Certificate, Level Diploma (Specialized) & Level 4 Specialist Diploma	40% Max	41% - 45%	10%	GM - 10%
		46% - 50%	15%	GM - 15%
		51% - 55%	20%	GM - 20%
		56 - 60%	25%	GM - 25%
		More than 60%	Fail	Fail
Level 5 Advanced Diploma	30% Max	31% - 35%	10%	GM - 10%
		36% - 40%	15%	GM - 15%
		41% - 45%	20%	GM - 20%
		46% - 50%	25%	GM - 25%
		More than 51%	Fail	Fail
Level 6 & 7	20%	Fail	Fail	Fail

Once the student's check their assignment plagiarism percentage and if above, he/she has to redo the assignment or allow the final mark reduction according to this table. The Examination Board and/or University Partner is to determine the outcome of the academic dishonesty case. All proven cases of academic dishonesty should be penalized as appropriate under the circumstances. Sanctions including a reduced or failing grade should be imposed by the GSTM and/or University Partner in which the student is enrolled. The imposition of any sanction other than a private reprimand should include a statement of reasons supporting its severity. A student may appeal any finding or sanction as specified by the school holding jurisdiction.

Sanctions may include but are not limited to:

1. Reduced or failing grade.
2. A letter of reprimand.
3. A defined period of probation, with or without the attachment of conditions.

5. Exclusion from the school.
6. Notation on the official record.
7. Revocation of an awarded diploma /degree
8. Any appropriate combination of 1-8 above.

Student will be notified for the outcome by Academic Coordinator. The Academic Coordinator will record the student's mark in the examination database. Students may appeal in writing to GSTM and/or University Partner if they are dissatisfied with the results.

Due Process and Student Rights

Students charged with academic dishonesty may not change their registration in a course in which the charge is pending or in which a finding of academic dishonesty has been made. In all cases involving academic dishonesty, the student charged or suspected shall, at a minimum, be accorded the following rights:

7. Final review of an unsuccessful appeal, if requested by the student, by the Examination Board.

Consequences of Cheating and/or Plagiarism

Any students found cheating/ attempting to cheat in examinations or caught for plagiarism, will be considered as failed in the respective examination or coursework.
